Whereas, vide Advt. No. 6.37.2006/EST/RCS dated 30-08-2011, the Registrar invited applications from eligible candidates for filling up of the posts of twelve Jr. Auditors/Jr. Inspectors on regular basis.

And whereas, vide Advt. No. 6.37.2006/EST/RCS/ /part-III dated 20-10-2011, the Registrar invited applications from eligible candidates for filling up of the posts of eleven Audit Assistants on regular basis.

And whereas, in terms of the above referred advertisements, which was published in the local dailies, the interested candidates submitted their individual applications.

And whereas, the Dy. Registrar of Coop. Societies (Admn.) issued call letters to all the eligible candidates who have applied for the post of Jr. Auditors/Jr. Inspectors to appear for written test to be held on 02-10-2011 at 10.00 a.m. at Don Bosco High School, Panaji-Goa.

And whereas, further call letters were issued to all the candidates who have successfully passed the written test to appear for an oral interview in the office of the Registrar of Co-operative Societies (RCS) to be held on 09-11-2011 and 10-11-2011.

And whereas, in pursuant to the oral interview, letter of offer of appointment were issued to all the successful candidates.

And whereas, on 20-12-2011, the Department addressed communications to the Dean, Goa Medical College and Hospital, Bambolim; the Medical Officer, Hospicio Hospital Margao; and the Medical Officer, Asilo Hospital, Mapusa; requesting that the said selected candidates be medically examined in terms of the prescribed rules.

And whereas, the said medical check-up/ /examination was conducted by the designated Hospitals on 22-12-2011, 23-12-2011, 26-12-2011, 28-12-2011 and 30-12-2011 after following the required procedure, call letters were sent.

And whereas, on 23-12-2011, this Department issued orders of appointment to five selected candidates to the post of Jr. Auditors/Jr. Inspectors.

And whereas, on 24-12-2011, the Election to the Goa State Legislative Assembly were declared and consequently, the Model Code of Conduct (MCC) came into effect.

And whereas, on 09-01-2012, a Circular was issued by the General Administration Department, Government of Goa, conveying certain directions which were issued on 04-01-2012 by the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer. In terms of the said directions, it was stated that where offers of appointment were issued prior to the Model Code of Conduct having come into force, but where personal verification and medical examination was pending, orders of appointment should not be given effect to and that no newly appointed person who have not joined should be allowed to join until the Model Code of Conduct was lifted.

And whereas, on 27-01-2012, the Registrar issued an order directing that in terms of the directives of the Election Commission of India and of Chief Electoral Officer, Altinho, Panaji, Goa, the appointment were kept in abeyance until the Model Code of Conduct was lifted.

And whereas, after the election of the Goa State Legislative Assembly were concluded and the Model Code of Conduct lifted, it was found by the Government that there were certain glaring and serious illegalities/irregularities and manipulation were committed in the selection/recruitment process of the Jr. Auditors/Jr. Inspectors and Audit Assistants.

And whereas, considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, the said matter was referred to Anti Corruption Bureau (ACB) of the Directorate of Vigilance. The said ACB after having conducted a detailed and thorough investigation covering all the aspects regarding the said selection process came to the following findings:

- a) That, undue haste is observed by issuing appointment orders and subsequent joining of the candidates especially during the Model Code of Conduct. The RCS Shri P. K. Velip Kankar has stated that the selected candidates who approached the office with the acceptance letter on 23-12-2011 were issued with the appointment orders which were handed over to them on the same day i.e. on 23-12-2011. Despite, the Model Code of Conduct for General Assembly Elections, 2012 which came into force on 24-12-2011 and was effective when the candidates (five Jr.

Auditors/Jr. Inspectors and eight Audit Assistants) were allowed to join on 26-12-2011.

- b) It is seen from the joining report submitted by Mrs. Smita P. Dessai for the post of Audit Assistant dated 26-12-2011 has been taken on record vide number 6951 on 23-12-2011 which is endorsed by RCS Shri P. K. Velip Kankar himself. So also, the joining report of Shri Vijendra C. Naik, Audit Assistant dated 26-12-2011 has been taken on records vide number 6961 dated 23-12-2011 and endorsed by RCS Shri P. K. Velip Kankar himself.
- c) One candidate Shri Jayant Vishnu Solyekar, Roll No. AA- 27-ST who has scored 70 marks is not figuring in the waiting list in ST candidates as per Departmental Selection Committee (DSC) minutes whereas candidate Shri Rajesh K. Gaonkar having Roll No. AA- -21-ST who has scored 67 marks is placed in the waiting list of Audit Assistants.
- d) No forms required to be filled by the candidate were given to Miss Radha Revodkar who submitted her acceptance for the post of Jr. Auditor on 20-12-2011 whereas necessary forms were issued to other selected candidates.
- e) As per the RCS in his statement, has stated that the candidates were allowed to join on 26-12-2011 i.e. during the Model Code of Conduct, as the Model Code of Conduct is silent for joining the selected candidates. He also stated that no any immediate instructions were received by him from the office of Chief Election Commissioner Office, Altinho, till 29-12-2011. This appears to be just eyewash to cover up the lacuna of allowing the candidates to join during the MCC in force. Such an explanation is also seen in his Note in the file in question.
- f) It is seen from the letters to the candidates for the post of Jr. Auditor dated 22-09-2011 that the maximum marks allotted for the written exam are 100 marks; whereas the candidates were supplied with question paper of 75 marks maximum for the written exam conducted on 02-10-2011. The candidates have answered the appear. However, the DSC has assessed the written exam to be of 50 marks maximum. The RCS Shri P. K. Velip Kankar in his statement has clarified that the call letters to the candidates for the post of Jr. Auditor were issued by the Dy. Registrar (ADM) at his level. Hence, claiming ignorance of the inconsistency. He has further stated that though it is true that the question paper was of 75 marks but subsequently for final assessment purpose, marks obtained by the candidates were converted into ratio for 50 marks so as to give the weightage for higher qualification and experience to the candidates. The RR and the Advertisement in reference is silent on the maximum marks to be allotted for the written test. There is no record to show any directions of the RCS or the minutes of the DSC as to how the maximum marks are converted from 75 marks to 50 marks. The above contradiction in the maximum marks allotted to the candidates in written test which is the main parameter for the selection of the candidates casts doubts over fair assessment of the candidates in written test.

- g) Due to the conversion of marks by adopting the above mode, undue weightage is given to the remaining parameters such as additional Qualifications and Knowledge of Computer which are not mentioned in the RRs and neither has been mentioned in the Advertisement. As per the written test paper the maximum marks were 75; which if taken to assess the candidates, then the DSC would be left with 25 marks to test the candidates for other parameters like Additional Qualifications/Knowledge of Computers/Experience in Co-operation; Extra-curricular Activities and the oral test. By reducing the marks from 75 to 50 marks in written, the DSC have used their unspecified discretion in allotting the remaining marks. Further, 10 marks maximum were allotted for Additional Qualifications and 5 marks for Knowledge of Computers; also though under the head "Experience in Co-operation" was mentioned in the Advertisement and the RRs provide the same to be desirable, DSC have varied in the allotted 15 marks under this head. 5 marks have been allotted for Extra-curricular Activities and the remaining 15 marks for oral interview (that is 50 marks in total). The RCS Shri P. K. Velip Kankar in his statement has clarified that based on the certificates produced by the candidates at the time of oral interview and marks were allotted depending upon the certificates of the Diploma of six months, one year period etc. The marks allotted for higher qualification were allotted upon the degree and post graduation in commerce stream as the minimum qualification in the post of Jr. Auditors/Inspectors is intermediate. Maximum 5 marks were allotted to the graduate candidates and another 5 marks for post graduate candidates. The marks allotted for experience were allotted depending upon the period of experience in the field of accounting; co-operation i.e. six months, one year, two years, etc; however there is no mention of this in the directions of the RCS or the minutes of the DSC as to how Experience in co-operation has been assessed. As such the above allotted marks (35) cast suspicion of undue favour to the selected candidates.

- h) Further, the selected candidates have scored high marks in oral compared to meager marks allotted to other candidates in the oral test; thus leaving scope for undue favour to the selected candidates. It may be seen that selected candidates have scored between 60% to 86% in the oral examinations. Such high scoring in oral interview gives scope for undue advantage to the candidates.
- i) During the course of enquiry the answer sheets of the candidates who appeared for the written test for the post of Jr. Auditor/Inspector were called for from the office of the RCS. About 25 answer papers were selected at random including those of the selected candidates and wait list candidates. While perusing the same it is seen that the marks allotted to the candidates in Question 2 (Letter writing) and Question 4 i and ii (Maths) of the paper are highly debatable as there is high scope for favoritism. It is also seen in case of some candidates, their marks have been changed so as to get qualified for the oral interview and get selected thereafter. In case of some candidates unequal marks have been allotted to the same answer as regards to Question No. 4 i & ii as above. There is ambiguity in the allotment of marks for Question No. 2 (Letter writing). It is observed from the answer paper of the candidate No. JA-410-GEN that his marks are changed from 33 to 38 by giving extra 5 marks for Question No. 2 i.e. Letter writing. There is clear overwriting wherein his marks have been changed from 8 marks to 13 marks. This candidate stands to be selected by virtue of the marks gained by him through the other parameters including the oral test. Besides this candidate, there is overwriting of the marks on other answer sheets. It is also a fact that the selected candidates have stood at an advantage by virtue of the high marks given to them in the oral interview and other parameters which was only possible since the marks for written test were reduced from 75 to 50 marks.

- j) The unemployed youth have been ignored by the Employment Exchanges where they are registered. No candidates were sponsored by E. E. North and E. E. South for the post of Junior Auditors whereas for the Post of Audit Assistants no candidates were sponsored by E. E. North and E. E. South sponsored 157 names under the General/ST/OBC category. Employment Exchanges have not shown keen interest in sponsoring candidates for the post as requested by RCS and not submitted their names in time thus depriving them of reasonable opportunity and fair competition is defeated.
- k) The normal practice of using the Postal Service has not been used in the later stage of the recruitment process which is an indication of hurried culminating of the recruitment process before the declaring of Model Code of Conduct. The RCS office has not used the postal services (registered AD) for issuing the orders/letters and instead has delivered the Appointment Orders by hand to the candidates directly.
- l) The selected candidates who appeared in the office of RCS, Panaji on 26-12-2011 for further process were informed by staff in the Office of the RCS of the MCC that had come in force on 24-12-2011. However, as their Joining Reports were not accepted by the staff, the selected candidates approached the RCS Shri P. K. Velip Kankar on the same day with their Joining Reports which were accepted by RCS and they were directed to join their services. Further the selected candidates were issued with their Order of Postings and accordingly they joined their duties at their place of Postings on the same day. The RCS ignored the facts that the MCC was in force and he himself facilitated the acceptance of joining reports of the candidates and issued them posting orders.
- m) Improper medical fitness procedure is seen to have been adopted giving scope for manipulation. Information was sought from the Medical Superintendents of GMC/Hospicio/Asilo. It is seen that amount paid as Fees by the candidates at the time of Fitness Tests varies from Rs. 10/- to Rs. 120/- it is seen that the GMC does not obtain the photographs of the candidates approaching for Medical Test; thereby giving scope for manipulation and changes of impersonation by the candidates. The process for Medical Test for the candidates needs to be streamlined.

- n) It is also seen that a candidate namely Shri Krishna M. Parsekar who is selected for the Post of Jr. Auditor/Inspector under the PD Category with a Certificate of disability from Dr. Shyam S. Talwadkar, the Sr. Orthopedic Surgeon, Asilo Hospital, Mapusa dated 9-9-2009 that he is physically disabled and has 42% permanent impairment in relation to his right hand. Whereas the Medical Fitness Certificate issued by the same Doctor at Asilo Hospital, Mapusa dated 22-12-2011 states that the candidate Shri Krishna M. Parsekar is not suffering from any constitutional weakness or bodily deformity which would disqualify the candidate for any employment and declared him medically fit for the job. The Certificate issued in this regards is in the standard format which is used for other candidates; which goes to show that the Medical Officer has issued the same without proper and detailed examination of the candidate.
- o) The entire recruitment process has gained unprecedented momentum right from the creation of the Posts in August 2011 till the joining of the selected candidates December 2011 which was hurriedly assembled till the Code of Conduct came into force.
- p) So also as per the list of the selected candidates for the Post of Jr. Auditor/Inspector and Audit Assistants including those figuring in the waiting list, it is seen that the majority of selected candidates hail from a particular Taluka; thus showing unequal distribution of the Government jobs. Considering the total of 37 selected candidates and those in the waiting list for both the Posts, 20 candidates hail from Ponda Taluka.
- q) It is seen that the appointment orders of the candidates for the post of Jr. Auditors/Inspectors and Audit Assistants dated 23-12-2011 are signed by Shri P. K. Velip Kankar, who was on Official Tour as on 23-12-2011

whereas as per the Order No. 6/9/2008-PER (Part III) dated 15-12-2011 the RCS Shri P. K. Velip Kankar alongwith 22 other officers was permitted by the Competent Authority to leave the headquarters to proceed to Kolhapur from 21-12-2011 to 23-12-2011 for field visit as a part of Refresher Course conducted by the Goa Institute of Rural Development & Administration, Ela, Old Goa on behalf of the Government. This goes to show that either Shri P. K. Velip Kankar RCS has signed the Appointment Orders at an earlier date or has ensured that the said orders are signed on the brink of declaring the Model Code of Conduct.

And whereas, ACB, Director of Vigilance has concluded that Merit has been the casualty alongwith transparency in the process of selection of candidates under reference; as the recruitment was conducted in undue haste, with arbitrary changes in the allotment of marks, lack of standard procedure by hospitals in the medical test and more so when majority of candidates selected come from a particular Taluka i.e. Ponda indicate to some malaise in the system.

And whereas, Secretary (Vigilance) has agreed with the findings of ACB that appear to be no fair play in the selection of candidates hence recommended that Government may quash the recruitment process.

And whereas, the Government approved the above recommendations of Secretary (Vigilance) and suggested to file FIR in the matter and proceed further.

Now therefore, in view of the above report and in pursuance to the directives of the Government, the undersigned as the Appointing Authority for the posts of 12 Jr. Auditors/Jr. Inspectors and 11 Audit Assistants hereby cancels the entire process of recruitment to the aforesaid posts, conducted with reference to the Advertisement indicated at Sr. No. 1 and 2 with immediate effect and hereby authorize the Dy. Registrar of Coop. Societies (Admn.), to file FIR.

This is issued with the approval of the Government.

J. B. Bhingui, Registrar of Coop. Societies & Ex Officio Joint Secretary.
